How a Breckinridge Man Was Converted.

I must give my readers the benefit of what I heard a delegate from Sangamon County, Illinois, tell to-day as his polititical experience, and how he came to be converted from a Breckinridge Democrat to a Lincoln Republican. I give it in his own words: "I was a Breckinridge Democrat in the last campaign. My wife and I owned four or five niggers in Tennessee, and we both thought Slavery was right Even after the war broke out we thought it was right. When old Abe issued his proclamation giving the Rebels a hundred days to cool down in, then I said he was right. He told him: "Jefferson, I'll give you a fair chance; if you come back you may bring your niggers with you; if you don't I'll give you hell—niggers and all." I waited to see what Jeff. would do, and when I found that he was determined to go off anyhow, I wouldn't have anything more to do with him. I said Abe might free my niggers with the balance of 'em. So, when the hundred days were up, I said to my wife one morning: 'Do you know you slept with an Abolitionist last night?' 'No,' says she. 'Well,' it's true,' says I. 'And I've been the d—dest Abolitionist you ever saw since that time.'"—Baltimore Cor. Cin. Com.

BENJ. F. BUTLER TO GARRETT DAVIS.—Gen. Butler has sent the following characteristic letter to Senator Davis, of Kentucky, in response to the resolution of inquiry offered by the latter in the United States Senate, a few days since:

HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD,
June 3, 1864.

Garrett Davis, Esq., Member of the United States Senate from Kentucky.

SIR. I have read your resolution of inquiry. You do me no greater favor than to have every act of my political life, which began on the first Thursday of November, 1839, and ended on the 15th day of April, 1861, most thoroughly scrutined.

I will thank you also to have every act of my official life, which began as a Brigadier General of the Massachusetts Militia, April 16th, 1861, and will end when this war does if not sooner, subjected to the like examination. I have no favors to ask, and but one act of justice—that the inquisition may not be exparte, that is one-sided.

Your obedient servant,
BENJ. F. BUTLER.

SLOW GRINDING.—Quite a number of years ago there lived in Androscoggin county, Maine, a man by the name of——. He was a farmer, stage-driver, and hotel keeper, and was blessed with a large family of boys.—Among them was the hero of our yarn. Ide was the name that he was best known by. He was lean, lank, and scrawny—always on hand to run errands and do chores generally.—One very hot day in July Ide was sent off about three miles to a mill, with a large lot of grain to be ground Unluckily for him, there was quite a quantity in before he got there, so that it was late in the afternoon before they got to work on Ide's lot,—The water was low, consequently the mill stone revolved rather slowly. Ide was hungry, and his inner man grew uproarious, and looking up to the miller, he says:

"Uncle Reub, I can eat that meal faster than you can grind it."

"Ah, my boy, how long could you do it?"

"Why, till I am starved to death!" said Ide.

Uncle Reub says that he never got such a shot before.

☞It is some time since we heard from General Hunter, who appears to have performed the work allotted to him. The War Department on Saturday received information from his command, which having fulfilled the mission upon which it was sent—the destruction of the Central Railroad in the vicinity of Staunton, of the Gordonsville and Lynchburg Railroad, and an important portion of the James River Canal—is successfully pressing forward to the point in Western Virginia. Hunter was ordered to make for after having done the work in the Valley assigned him. His losses have been smaller than was anticipated when he set out. The services his little army have rendered are of great importance, indeed, and his losses of comparative insignificance.

"Under Which King?"

Was ever cynical indifference to right and wrong more candidly avowed than in the following, from the last number of the London Punch:—"To speak confidentially, and on the understanding that things go no further, the case is this: If we only knew which way the war the war was going! If we were certain that the glorious and almighty bird of freedom that waves its alabaster wings in Washington, and smiles on all that is free and enlightened, would triumph over those savage, disloyal, ferocious rebels; those stealers and floggers of men and women; those ruffians, assassins, and what not, we should know what to do. But if that resolute and gallant bant of Confederate gentlemen, who have withdrawn from the vulgar and tyrannical Yankees, and aided by their faithful colored vassals, have maintained so noble a resistance against the loafers, jobbers, miscreants, scum and spawn of the North—if these Southern patriots should establish their independence — why — Punch would do homage to them, of course."

WHAT GEN. GRANT THINKS.—The country would probably give more to know what Gen. Grant thinks of his present situation than for the opinion of all the newspapers in the country. On this point, fortunately we are not without light. The President returned from a brief visit to Grant Friday. A Washington dispatch of that date says: "The President speaks to-day of the condition of army matters in the very highest terms of confidence. He says that General Grant feels as certain of success as though it were already an accomplished fact. He did not importune the President for more troops, or complain of want of support, but reports that all goes well." Another dispatch of the same date says: "There is the highest authority for the statement that Gen. Grant gave the President, when at his headquarters, the assurance of the certainty of his taking Richmond." Let the country trust Grant—and back him up.

☞From Bedford county, in this State, we have an evidence of one of the methods resorted to by copperheads to help the Southern traitors, in the following published in the copperhead organ at Bedford:

"At the present writing, (6th inst.) the result of Grant's campaign against Richmond remains in doubt. Already he has lost as many men as composed M'Clellan's entire army when that General marched up the Peninsula—The loss of the Federal army, according to telegraphic report, cannot fall much short of 100,000 men, killed, wounded and missing. There has been about thirteen days of fighting, including the small battles fought by Gen. Butler, which would average the loss of about 8,000 per day."

These are the kind of arguments used to gain copperhead victories and to keep up the spirits of the rank and file of the party, and these are also the arguments used to keep up the spirits of the rank and file of the rebel army, and secure victories over the Union troops.

PRICES IN GEORGIA.—A correspondent with Sherman's army gives the following prices current in Georgia: Wages per day, plowing or splitting rails, $5; flour per barrel, $100; corn per bush., $20; bacon per lb., $6; sweet potatoes per bush., $10; coffee per lb., $16—none since the war; eggs per dozen, $2,50 and $3; rice per lb., $1; Cheese—none to be had since the war; a good cow with young calf, $500; a good horse $4,000 to $5,000; syrup per gallon, $20; a negro man, $4,000 to $5,000; a negro woman. $2,-800; calico per yard, $5, thin; cotton, homespun, $10 per yard; cotton, domestic checks, $10 yer yard; women's shoes, per pair, $40, coarse; men's shoes, per pair, $50, coarse; ladies' shoes, fine, per pair, $100—none to be had; cotton cards, per pair, $70; nails, per pound, $3; horse-shoes, per set, $8; jugs, per gallon, $1; milk, per canteenfull, $2; butter, per pound, $2.

☞Old Marm G—— was never regarded as a paragon of neatness; and if "cleanliness is next unto godliness," as St Paul asserts, it is to be feared that the old lady never attained to the latter state. Not only was she anything but neat herself, but she showed a sovereign contempt of it in others. Speaking of neat people, one day, she remarked that her son Joshua was one of the most particular men in the world

"Why," said she, "he threw away a whole cup of coffee the other morning because it had a bed-bug in it."

ROMANTIC.—Among the passengers on the New-York express train up on the Hudson River Railroad, on Monday, was a brave fellow from the Army of the Potomac, with a comrade accompanying him, both dressed in the uniform of the United States, with canteens, &c. At the first glance nothing uncommon could be detected in the looks of the pair, nor should we have been able to recite the romantic history connected with the couple were we not acquainted with it by a friend who was told it by a hospital nurse. It appears that at the breaking out of the Rebellion these lovers (for one of them was a young girl dressed in the garb of a soldier) were engaged to be married, which ceremony must either be postponed, on account of the lover going to defend the flag of his country, or else the marriage must take place, and his fair inamorata must follow him. She chose the latter, and married they were, he enlisted afterward in the 2d Michigan Regiment as a private, and she, donning the "blue," followed him.—Amid the crash of shot and shell at the battle of the Wilderness, this heroic girl stood by the side of husband and with her good musket defended him, and struck for her country at the heart of the chivalry. Passing safely through that desperate fight they pressed on with their regiment to the bloody field of Spottsylvania, where the brave Michigander had his arm broken by a piece of shell. Seeing him fall, she bound up his wound, and, raising him from the ground amid the thickest of the fight, she carried him to the rear, and, placing him on a caisson which was about starting back for ammunition, she had the satisfaction of seeing him carried to a place of safety, he being soon afterward conveyed to Carver Hospital, the heroine and young wife attending him until he got well enough to start for their home in the Far West, they being en route for there yestorday.—Poughkeepsie Eagle

☞The Senate on Thursday passed the act repealing the Fugitive Slave laws of 1793 and 1850 by a vote of 22 to 12. We repeat here the Yeas and Nays:

YEAS—Messrs Anthony, Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Dixon, Foot, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, Harris, Hicks, Howard, Howe, Lane (Ind.), Lane (Kansas), Morgan, Morrill, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade and Wilson.

NAYS—Messrs. Buckalew, Carlisle, Cowan, Davis, Hendricks, Johnson, M'Dougall, Powell, Riddle, Saulsbury, Van Winkle, and Willey.

The Nays are, of course, all Democrats, excepting Johnson, of Maryland, and Van Winkle and Willey, of West Virginia. The Free State Union men voted a solid Yea. The act now only requires the signature of the President to become a law. Of course that will be given, and the blood-red stain that has blotted the statute book of the Republic for seventy years is wiped out forever. No more slave-hunts on free soil — one step gained toward a lasting and righteous peace! One step from which a people who respect themselves and love Liberty can never go back.—Tribune.

GRANT AND THE PRESIDENCY.—In commenting upon the possibility of Gen. Grant, in a certain contingency, accepting the nomination for the Presidency, the Milwaukee Sentinel avers that it knows from perfectly reliable sources that Gen. Grant has peremptorily refused, in advance, any offer of the Presidency. He replied to those who were seeking to learn his views on the subject, that while the war lasted no earthly inducement could take him voluntarily from his present position, and that even should the war come to a speedy conclusion he would be the most ungrateful of men to run against Mr. Lincoln. This declaration comes to us through the most trustworthy sources, and affords thus conclusive proof that Gen. Grant has fully decided not to enter the political arena. And those who know him, know that he is not apt to waver when he has made up his mind one way or the other.

☞Mrs Patterson Allen, indicted in Richmond for "treason" to the Southern Confederacy, (i. e. for being a loyal woman,) is under $100,000 bail, and is to be tried on the 10th of next month.

☞If a man has nothing to say, he is sure to spend much time and many words in saying it.

A Horrible Prophecy Fulfilled

It is well known, says the Pittsburg Commercial, that A. H. Stephens, now officiating as Vice President of the confederated barbarians, opposed, to the extent of his eloquence and ability, the secession of the Southern States. He argued that under the benificent government which they were setting about to destroy, they had been protected and fostered until they had become wealthy, great and powerful. That everything they had asked of the General Government had been granted to them—that the South had always had a majority of the foreign ministers, Judges of the United States Court, and nearly all the Presidents. Even in regard to that most sensitive point, the agitation of the Slavery question, he said:

"So far from the institution of African slavery in our section being weakened or rendered less secure by the discussion, my deliberate judgment is that it has been greatly strengthened and fortified, not only in the opinions, convictions and consciences of men, but by the action of the Government."

Again he says:

'The South ought to stand by and aid still in maintaining the Constitution of the country. To make a point of resistance to the Government, to withdraw from it because a man has been constitutionally elected puts us in the wrong."

On another occasion he said that our Government was the "best Government on earth." He left no argument untried to induce them to pause in their mad projects. Having appealed to their honor, their gratitude, their reverence for the institutions of their fathers, their love of country, he at last appealed to their fears in the following prophetic passage:

"It may be that out of it we may become greater and more greater and more prosperous, but I am candid and sincere in telling you that I fear if we rashly evince passion, and without sufficient cause shall take that step, that instead of becoming greater, or more peaceful, prosperous and happy, instead of becoming gods we will become demons, and at no distant day commence cutting each other's throats."

Direful as was the revolting prophecy to the imagination of the orator, events have more than fulfilled it.

We do not mention or enumerate the scores of midnight murders for the crime of loving the old flag, for they have become too common to excite our horror, but we allude to the inhuman butchery at Fort Pillow—Read the following extracts of the testimony taken before the Committee appointed to investigate the matter, and judge if the rebels in their madness have not "become demons!" An extract from the report of the Committee states:

"The huts and tents in which many of the wounded had sought shelter were set on fire, both that night and the next morning, while the wounded were still in them; those only escaping who were able to get themselves out, or who could prevail on others less injured than themselves to keep them out; and even some of those thus seeking to escape the flames were met by those ruffians and brutally shot down, or had their brains beaten out. One man was deliberately fastened down to the floor of a tent, face upwards, by means of nails driven through the clothing and into the boards under him, so that he could not possibly escape, and then the tent set on fire; another was nailed to the side of a building outside of the fort, and then the building set on fire and burned. The charred remains of five or six bodies were afterward found, all but one so much disfigured and consumed by the flames that they could not be identified, and the identification of that one is not absolutely certain, although there can hardly be a doubt that was the body of Lieutenant Akerstrom, quartermaster of the Thirteenth Tennessee cavalry, and a native Tennessean; several witnesses, who saw the remains, and who were personally acquainted with him while living, have testified that it is their firm belief that it was his body that was thus treated."

Surgeon Wardner, who had charge of the hospital, after detailing the murder of several hospital patients, was asked:

We have heard rumors that some of these persons were buried alive?—Did you hear anything about that?

Answer. I have two in the hospital here who were buried alive.

Question. Both colored.

Answer. Yes, sir

Question. How did they escape?

Answer. One of them I have not conversed with personally; the other I have. He was thrown into pit, as stated, with a great many others, white and black, several of whom were alive, they were all buried up together. He lay on the outer edge, but his head was nearer the surface; he had one well hand, and with that hand he was able to work a place thro' which he could breathe, and in that way he got his head out; he lay there for some twenty-four hours, and was finally taken out by somebody. The others, next to him, were buried so deep that they could not get out, and died.

One of the poor fellows who had been thus buried alive was examined by the Committee, and testified as follows:

Question. How did you lose your eye?

Answer. They knocked me down with a carbine, and then they jabbed it out.

Question. Was that before you were shot?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. After you had surrendered?

Answer. Yes, sir; I was going up the hill; a man came down and met me; he had his gun in his hand, whirled it around and knocked me down, and then took the end of his carbine and jabbed it into my eye and shot me.

Question. Were any of their officers about there then?

Answer. I did not see any officers.

Question. Were any white men buried with you?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. Were any buried alive?

Answer. I heard that one white man was buried alive; I did not see him.

Question. Who said that?

Answer. A young man. He said they ought not to have done it. He staid in there all night. I do not know as he ever got out.

Another witness testifies further of these "demons:"

I heard them shoot little children not more than that high (holding his hand off about four feet from the floor), that the offices had to wait upon them.

Question. Did you see them shoot them?

Answer. I did not raise my head.

Question. How did you know they shot them then?

Answer. I heard them say, "Turn round, so that I can shoot you good." and then I heard them fire, and then I heard the children fall over.

Another witness gives the language of these demons:"

They said, "Do you fight with these God damned niggers?" they said.—"Yes." Then they said, "God damn you, then, we will shoot you," and they shot one of them right down.—They said, "I would not kill you, but, God damn you, you fight with these damned niggers, and we will shoot you;" and then they blew his brains out of his head. They then went around and counted them up; I laid there and made eighteen who were there and there were six more below me. I saw them stick a bayonet in the small part of the belly of one of our boys and break it right off—he had one shot then.

Could fiends invent more infernal torture than the following:

Question. Were there any burned?

Answer. When I went there in the morning I saw them; they were burning altogether

Question. Did they kill them before they burned them?

Answer. No, sir, they were nailed to the logs; drove the nails right through their hands.

Question. How many did you see in that condition?

Answer. Some four or five; I saw two white men burned.

Question. Was there any one else there who saw that?

Answer. I reckon there was; I could not tell who.

Question. When was it that you saw them?

Answer. I saw them in the morning after the fight; some of them were burned almost in two. I could tell they were white men, because they were whiter than the colored men.

Question. Did you notice how they were nailed?

Answer. I saw one nailed to the side of a house; he looked like he was nailed right through the wrist. I was trying then to get to the boat when I saw it.

Captain Marshall testified. There was also one negro who had been thrown into a hole and buried alive. We took him out, but he lived only a few minutes afterwards." We presume he may have been the one described by another witness, who saw "a large mass of foam and dirt where somebody had been breathing through the earth, and brushed it off, and saw a negro there still breathing."

But the heart sickens with the revolting details. The "demons," in acts of cruelty, shame the sculping savage, and yet they have sympathizers at the North!

STATE FAIR.—The next exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will be held at Easton, in the beautiful park fitted up by the citizens of that neighborhood. The inclosure is the largest of the kind in the State, and in its accommodations spacious and elegant. The days fixed for the exhibition are Tuesday, September 24th, to Friday, the 30th, (four days.) The premiums offered are extremely liberal Catalogues can be had after the 1st of July next by addressing A. B. Longaker, Norriston.

☞In Richmond, at this time, common whisky sells at $150 a gallon, and uncommon at whatever the seller chooses to ask for it; yet whisky-drinking goes on. Chickens sell at $5 apiece, and turkeys at $60.

Beaver County Fair.

THE FAIR OF THE BEAVER COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, will be held in the Fair Grounds, near Beaver, on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday,

Sept. 21st, 22d and 23d, 1864.

Competition is invited from adjoining counties.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—There will be no paper issued from this office next week.

☞ The Beaver Post Office will be open the 4th of July from 8½ till 9½ a. m., and from 5½ till 6½ p. m.

☞ Read the advertisement of Prof. David Gordon, of Clinton, Allegheny county, which will be found in another column of our paper.

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday of last week while Mr. Wm. Alcorn and Mr. Alex. Clark were riding out in a carriage, the horses took fright and ran away in the Diamond, throwing both gentlemen from the carriage and badly hurting Mr. Alcorn. Dr. M'Kinney was immediately called in and dressed his wounds. Mr. Clark escaped with but one cut, which was not very serious.

☞ The following is a list of casualties in the 140th P. V. There are more we presume, as the regiment has been fighting or skirmishing almost incessantly since the army crossed the James river. The list is taken from private letters written by Mr. W. D. Tallon, a member of the 140th:

Co. I—Thomas Hunter, wounded in the left thigh; Lieut. Lewis Darragh, wounded in the right arm, slightly; Frank Graham, right leg amtutated above the knee; James Watterson, wounded in the face, seriously.

Lieut Purdy, of Company F, was shot in the head and instantly killed.

We learn from the Pittsburg papers that Col. John Frazer, of the 140th, was taken prisoner.

☞ We neglected, a couple weeks since (at which time his advertisement appeared in our paper), to call attention to the musical notice of Prof. Fernando Winters, of New Brighton, who is now engaged in teaching Music, and has also charge of a Brass Band in that place. Prof. Winters is a fine teacher—intelligent, educated and gentlemanly in his manners. Understanding the science of music perfectly, and apt in imparting knowledge to others, we can cheerfully recommend him as worthy of the patronage of all. A good band is a great desideratum in this vicinity, and we are glad to know that he has taken charge of it, and feel assured, from his knowledge of music, skill, execution and energy, that, under his management, we will soon have what we have so long desired.

Kentucky, "the Dark and Bloody Ground."

The raid of that mean and cowardly thief, John Morgan, is over, and after stealing some horses, burning some bridges taking what plunder he could carry, after being badly whipped by such raw militia as could be collected, he has left the State of Kentucky. Governor Bramlette, a man of doubtful loyalty, by slow movements succeeded in defending Frankfort, the Capital, and saved Kentucky from the disgrace of having it plundered and burned.

The disloyal and traitorous papers of that State, for a short time, ceased to abuse the Administration, and meanly begged the help of the Government. We cannot sympathize with Kentucky as we would have done under other circumstances, but feel that she has received a just and severe lesson. No State has been more petulant or required more indulgence in all her relations with the General Government. When the war of rebellion began, Kentucky threw the weight of her influence in favor of the South, and refused her aid to prevent the destruction of the Union. Her influence in the beginning was practically as much opposed to the Government as any other Southern State.—Nothing but stern necessity has compelled her to remain in the Union. But her moral influence is against the Administration. In every step taken by President Lincoln to suppress rebellion, has found Kentucky in the way. She opposed the first and every call for troops, she has opposed the confiscation of the property of the rebels in arms, she has opposed emancipation and the arming of the blacks, and has threatened armed opposition. She has been continually longing for the Confederacy, and yet the Confederacy has done nothing for her but to oppress and scourge her. With the exception of Virginia, no State in the Union has suffered more from the rebels themselves, with whom she sympathized. Under John Morgan and others they have come into the State again and again, for the mere purpose of robbery, murder and theft, and they always succeeded in their objects. The very fairest portions of the State have been devastated, and bands of murderous thieves have roamed over her fields, and consternation and destruction followed wherever they went without opposition except from the General Government. If any State has been taught by sad experience, it is Kentucky.

This Government which she has opposed and opposes now, this Union of which she is a sullen and reluctant member, has been her salvation and protection. All the time that she has been acting as a petulant, spoiled child, she has received nothing but kindness and attention. Her last deliverance is as marked as any one she has received, and it is hoped she may see the necessity of giving her sympathy and confidence to the Government. Kentucky is too glorious a member of the Union to waste her time in apathy and cold indifference, or in petulent opposition. In the grand history of our Republic, now being made, she should secure at least one page.

Remember the Soldier's Children.

Sergeant Humiston, of New York State was found dead on the battle-field of Gettysburg, in a sitting posture, holding in his hands an ambrotype of his three little children, and with his eyes fixed in death as he gave to them the last look of life.—There was no mark or name to tell who he was. Dr. Bourns, of Philadelphia, had the ambrotype photographed, and told the story through the papers of the land in hopes of discovering the little ones. He was successful. He is now trying, by the sale of these pictures and a piece of music commemorating the event, to support and educate these orphans. He sent a lot of them here for sale, which will be found at the Post Office in Beaver, Miss Anderson having agreed to sell them without any compensation for her service. May I not ask every one who can sympathize with a soldier or his orphan children to purchase these sacred mementoes of the battle-field of Gettysburg.—The whole price will go to the benefit of the children.

Rochester township—F. Foster, J. B. Young.
Raccoon—James Smith, J. K. Potter, C. Mowry, W. Stiletto.
South Beaver—Wm. Barclay, John Roberts, Sam. Mitchell, C. Donivan.

On motion, a committee of three, consisting of J. H. Beighley, James Patterson, John Wilson, Esqs. were appointed on contested election from Rochester township, who reported that one person from each delegation were entitled to seats, which report was adopted.

On motion, Hon. Thos. Cunningham, for Congress, Hon. L. L. M'Guffin, for President Judge, and Michael Weyand, for Prothonotary, were nominated by acclamation.

On motion, a Committee, consisting of James S. Rutan, Robert H. Barclay and Jonathan Paul, were appointed to draft Resolutions, who reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That we believe it to be the duty of every loyal citizen of this great Republic to support and maintain the Government and the supremacy of the laws against domestic traitors and all foreign enemies of civil and religious liberty, and that we most heartily approve of the efforts of our National authorities to crush out the treason and rebellion of the Southern or Slaveholding States, and that no reverses and no circumstances can change our determined purpose to sustain our government against all our enemies, whether in the South or in the North.

Resolved, That there are now no questions or issues which should divide the people of the United States in their support of the Government in its unceasing efforts to maintain the National authority and integrity of the Union, and that every patriot must and will lay aside every feeling and prejudice of party until the legitimate and constitutional power of the Government is restored. There are now no parties in existance but the friends and enemies of the Republic, and we sincerely believe it to be the duty of every patriot to stand by his country until treason and Northern sympathy with traitors is forever put down.

Resolved, That we view with horror and detestation, the miserable and traitorous efforts of the enemies of the Government in Congress to bring about peace with the rebels now in arms against our Government, and seeking the entire overthrow of our Republican institutions. We are opposed to any peace until the Government of the United States has suppressed rebellion and asserted the majesty of the laws, and the people of the South reduced to entire obedience and submission. When this is done, and the traitors who have brought on this war of rebellion against the best government on earth are punished for their most atrocious crimes against God and humanity, war ought to cease, but not until then.

Resolved, That we most decidedly approve of the action of the Government in relation to Slavery. No terms of compromise can be made with the unprincipled and misguided people of the South until that accursed institution, the fruitful cause of all our National troubles, is utterly and forever extirpated from every State and territory of the Union; and that the Constitution of the United States should be amended to suit the views of the loyal men of the country, prohibiting slavery or involuntary servitude forever, except for crime.

Resolved, That we are hearty supporters "of the Constitution as it is," not forgetting, but most heartily approving and highly appreciating that part of our National Constitution which provides for its own amendment and under which it has been heretofore amended, and we hope will be soon again amended as wisdom, experience and patriotism may dictate.

Resolved, That Abraham Lincoln, by his honesty of purpose, his untiring devotion, his unflinching energy and patriotism, has won the entire respect of all the wise and the good, not only of our own country but of every civilized country on earth.—Every principle of interest of justice, of right, and true patriotism demanded his re-nomination for President, and we have the fullest confidence that the loyal and intelligent men of this whole nation will enthusiastically endorse the action of the Baltimore Convention in nominating that good and wise man at the next November election.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse and approve of the nomination of that sound and sterling patriot, Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, for Vice President of the United States. His great ability as a wise, talented and honest statesman, command our most sincere respect, whilst his eminent services and unswerving devotion to the cause of his country and of human liberty, under the most trying circumstances, calls forth our highest admiration.

Resolved, That we approve of the principles or platform adopted by the Union Convention at Baltimore. They are such as suit our present condition as a nation, and will be supported by every friend of his country.

Resolved, That as Pennsylvanians we feel proud in expressing our approval of the Administration of Governor Curtin. No man occupies a more prominent or honorable position, a sa wise, prudent and patriotic supporter of the National Administration and of the Union of all the States. As the friend of the gallant men in our armies, he has no equal.

Resolved, That in the unanimous nomination of the Hon. Thomas Cunningham as our candidate for Congress, made this day, we feel that we have acted in accordance with the ardent wishes of every sincere Union man in the county. Beaver county has not elected a member of Congress since 1854, and is therefore entitled to it, and has a perfect right to claim it. This claim is strengthened when we have placed in nomination as our choice, a man whose acknowledged talents, ability, integrity and patriotism eminently fit him for that high and responsible position. We know that he has devoted all his energies and ability in behalf of his country since the first commencement of this great rebellion, and has rendered most signal service in our glorious cause. If nominated by the district, we will cheerfully and gladly ratify the act.

Resolved, That we have placed in nomination this day, men to fill the various public offices of the county, in whom we feel that the people has entire confidence. Their standing as citizens, their loyalty and their capacity cannot and will not be doubted by good men. We therefore gladly and cheerfully recommend them to the people. Their triumphant election we feel assured will take place at the next October election.

Resolved, That owing to the present advanced price of everything, especially of printing material, of paper, and labor, which now cost one-half more than formerly, we deem it but just to the esteemed editor of our county paper, the Beaver Argus, to recommend that the price of subscription be increased to at least Two Dollars; and we pledge ourselves to sustain the editor in so doing, to assist in increasing the number of subscribers in our several districts, believing it to be the duty of the Union men of Beaver county to sustain and support the paper that supports the Government. The convention recommend the Argus as worthy the confidence and patronage of the loyal men of the county.

Wm. B. Clark, Esq., D. L. Imbrie, and James S. Rutan, were, on motion, appointed Congressional Conferees, and D. L Imbrie, H. Hice and A. R Moore, Judicial Conferees.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot, which resulted as follow

On motion, it was resolved that the two candidates for Trustees of Academy having the highest number of votes be nominated for the long term, and the one having the next highest for the short term.

On motion, the Chairman was authorized to appoint a County Committee to consist of at least one from each election district and to appoint Assembly Conferees.

LEGISLATIVE CONFEREES.—James Darragh, Joseph Ledlie, Thomas M'Cord.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

PIC-NIC AT OLD BRIGHTON.—A very fine affair is to come off at Old Brighton on the National Anniversary Day. It is to be a Pic-Nic in Patterson's Grove for the benefit of St. Joseph's Church. The Managers are Messrs. Chas. Cunning, D. H. Leonard, H. C M'Giure and M'Laughlin.

Agricultural Meeting.

The Board of Managers of the Beaver County Agricultural Society met in Beaver, pursuant to notice, Friday, June 25th, 1864. The Premium List was taken up and arranged for publication, and the judges appointed for the coming Fair. Two premiums are offered of $150 each for a trotting match to come off on the second and third days of the Fair. The entrance fee charges is 10 per cent. and the horses are required to be entered on the Secretary's book on or before the 1st day of September next.

A premium of $5,00 is offered for the fastest straight walking horse or mare, and a 2nd premium of $3,00 for the 2nd best. A premium of $10,00 is offered for the best grape vineyard of not less than 1000 vines, $7,00 for the 2nd best, strict attention being paid to the cultivation of the vines. Resolution passed that Capt. James Darragh, Henry Hice, Esq., and John B. Young, be the committee on printing, and that they be instructed to have the bills, cards, tickets, premium, list and posters, that are necessary, struck as soon as possible and circulated.

The members of the Board appear to be greatly encouraged by the active interest already taken in different parts of the country, with regard to our coming Fair. If the feelings of the people living out of the county, as well as in it, indicate anything by which to judge of the matter, we will certainly have, by far, the greatest Fair and Exhibition this Fall that has ever been held in the Beaver Fair Grounds. And why should we not? If Beaver and the adjoining counties cannot get up a magnificient exhibition of all most every thing that is ornamental or useful to man, such a thing cannot be gotten up any where; and the premiums now offered for almost everything that a person could think of taking to a fair, being perhaps the largest that has ever been offered by any Society, either in Pennsylvania or Ohio, there is now some inducement for every person in or the adjoining counties to cast about, and see what they can bring, which might take one or more of the many hundred premiums offered.

Perhaps extending the competition to the adjoining counties has had something to do with stimulating our citizens to more than usually vigorous action; but whatever be the cause, every thing now indicates that the people have determined to have a Fair and Exhibition this Fall which will be a lasting credit to the Agricultural Society of Beaver county.

Reports of Rebel Deserters.

NEW YORK, June 29.—A World's special dated Washington, June 28th, says: Rebel deserters continue to come into Butler's line, reporting demoralization among the men and officers.—General Lee has sent two brigades of cavalry and an infantry force to operate against General Hunter. The endurance of the rebel troops is giving way under the marches to defend different points menaced by our cavalry, and has broken down and used up a large number of men. Diseases of various kinds prevail to a fearful extent. It is intimated that Lee has between 40,000 and 50,000 sick on hand whom he finds it impossible to remove beyond the scene of conflict, besides a population of 20,000 dependent on him for food.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8th, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or National Banks. They are TO BE DEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the 1st days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can by transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accured interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or received them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are EXEMPT FROM MUNICIPAL OR STATE TAXATION, their value is increased from two to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax leivies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay

OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST

in currency, and are of equal convenience as permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer as great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or corporate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is bonded to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the latter will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful in this connection to state that the total funded debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold on the 1st day of March last, was $524,176,412 00. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,690,184, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year ending June 30th 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $80,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless increase the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $[illegible] per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 21st, so that in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK.

Subscriptions will be received by the

First National Bank of Pittsburgh,
Third National Bank of Pittsburgh,
AND BY ALL NATIONAL BANKS which are depositaries of Public money, and all RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country, (acting as agents of the National Depositary Banks,) will give further information on application and Afford Every Facility to Subscribers.

Burnside Attacked—Repulse of the Second Corps.

A dispatch from Headquarters Army of the Potomac, June 27th, five o'clock a. m., says: An attack was made on Burnside at about ten o'clock Saturday night, with the intention of driving back a working party, who were engaged in digging entrenchments towards the enemy's front, so as to gain a better position in which to place guns to effectually cover the enemy's works. The firing was very brisk for about an hour, resulting in our men holding their ground, continuing their labors without loss of consequence. The health of the troops in the main is good.

In the affair of Wednesday last, a Tribune correspondent says: The 19th and 15th Massachusetts, and the 42d and 82d New York regiments were captured bodily. The object of the movement—getting possession of the railroads south of Petersburg—was not gained, though the movement of our forces was promptly resumed after the rebels retreated with their captures. Owing to the rebels having the inside track, and reaching the point first, they repulsed our advance force, consisting of the Vermont brigade, which lost severely in prisoners.

Sec Stanton's Official Bulletin

WASHINGTON, June 28—4 p. m.—To Major General Dix: The following dispatch has just been received from General Hunter:

"I have the honor to report that our expedition has been extremely successful in inflicting great injury upon the enemy, and victorious in every engagement. Running short of ammunition, and finding it impossible while in the presence of an enemy believed to be superior to our force in numbers, and who constantly receive reinforcements from Richmond and other points, I deemed it best to return, and have succeeded in doing so without serious loss to this point, where we obtained abundant supply of food. A detailed report of our operations will be forwarded immediately. The command is in excellent heart and health, and ready, after a few days, rest, for service in any direction." Nothing later than my telegram of this morning has been received from Grant or Sherman.

E. M. STANTON.

COPPERHEAD COMPLICITY WITH REBELS.—Gov. Brantlette of Kentucky, writes a letter of thanks to Governor Morton for the prompt assistance rendered by Indiana during Morgan's late raid. He pays a high compliment to the patriotism and kindly feeling which prompted the 43d Indiana to go to Kentucky's assistance while visiting their own families. He says, the appearance of Vallandigham in Ohio simultaneously with Morgan's raid in Kentucky fully confirms the matter of complicity he had been advised of. The defeat of Morgan has frustrated their designs for the present, but vigilance must still guard against these machinations of evil men.

The Rebels in Strong Force.

YORK, June 28—A Tribune dated Headquarters Army of Potomac, June 26th, evening, says: The enemy is in very strong force in front, and exhibit a determination to resist every attempt of our forces to advance on the Petersburg and Weldon railroad. Of such vital importance is it to them, that only the most desperate skill and bravery can dislodge them from it. A report of the Vermont Brigade in the late fight shows a stubborn determination of the enemy, and there is no relaxation ever since, then they have exhibited their best portion of their troops and men.

Gen Foster's Position.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The Herald's Hundred correspondent of the 27th says: The situation of the army in relation to General Foster's position at Jones' Neck, on the north side, remains unchanged, though quite an engagement resulted in some fighting. Just before noon the rebels were discovered throwing up entrenchments at the Head of Proctor's Creek, after several rounds of artillery left.

Weldon and Petersburg Railroad.

NEW YORK, June 29.—A World's special from Headquarters, June 27th, says: The rebels hold possession of the Weldon and Petersburg Railroad as yet. As matters now stand there is no ground for saying that we will have it immediately. Our position is such, however, as to prevent the enemy running any trains that way. Gen. Grant is making the enemy's position a warm one.

Gen Grant's Captures.

The Washington Star says: Since Gen. Grant crossed the Rapidan he has taken 17,000 prisoners not including those of the last four or five days, which in his own is less than one-tenth of the number. Among the recent captures were men over sixty years of age and boys aged fourteen years. They all say they were forced into the rebel ranks."

Loss in Sheridan's Cavalry.

NEW YORK, June 29.—A Herald's correspondent of the 27th says Sheridan's loss in the recent raid was less than twenty-five hundred. Wilson and Kautz succeeded to do great damage to the Lynchburg, have not returned.

The Repulse of Sherman.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A rebel dispatch from Holly Springs says the repulse of Sherman with a loss of forty guns, claiming a victory, after the severest fighting of the campaign.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by virtue of a writ issued by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to me directed, under the provisions of an Act of Assembly, approved the Twenty-third day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, it is made my duty to give public notice of a Special Election, to be held on the FIRST TUESDAY OF AUGUST, 1864, and in said notice, among other things, to designate,

1. The purpose of holding such election.
2. The places where such election is to be held.

Now, therefore, in pursuance thereof, I JOSEPH LEDLIE, High Sheriff of the county of Beaver, do hereby make known, and give this public notice to the electors of the county of Beaver, that on the

First Tuesday of August next,

(being the 2d day of the month) a Special Election will be held at the several election districts established by law in the said county, at which time the qualified electors will vote by ballot upon certain amendments to the Constitution of Pennsylvania hereinafter mentioned, viz:

FIRST AMENDMENT.

Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of elections.

SECOND AMENDMENT.

No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

THIRD AMENDMENT.

No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any power or privileges in any case where the authority to grant such powers or privileges has been or may hereafter be conferred upon the Courts of this Commonwealth.

The said election will be held throughout the county as follows:

The electors of Borough township will meet at the Court House in the borough of Beaver.

The electors of Bridgewater borough will meet at the Town Hall in Bridgewater.

The electors of Phillipsburgh district will meet at the public brick school house in said borough.

The electors of Moon township will meet at the house now occupied by Amariah Hendrickson in said township.

The electors of Hopewell township will meet at the school house in the village of Scottsville, in said township.

The electors of Independence township will meet at the house of Alexander Thompson, dec'd, in said township.

The electors of Raccoon township will meet at the house of David Ewing, in said township.

The electors of Frankfort district will meet at the house of George Dungan, in Frankfort.

The electors of M'Guire's district will meet at the house of John Porter in the village of Hanover.

The electors of Greene township will meet at the house of Elijah Niswanger, in Hookstown.

The electors of Ohio township will meet at house now occupied by Jamison Elliott, in said township.

The electors of righton township (not embraced in Industry district) will meet at the school house, near Richey Eakin's, in said township.

The electors of the borough of Fallston will meet at the Academy in Fallston.

The electors of Patterson township will meet at the school house in the village of Brighton.

The electors of Chippewa township will meet at the house of Azarian Tunman, in said township.

The electors of South Beaver township will meet at the house of John Rowe, in said township.

The electors of Darlington township will meet at the Academy in Darlington.

The electors of Big Beaver township will meet at the house of widow Miller, in said township.

The electors of Franklin township will meet at the house of Mark R. Clark, in said township.

The electors of North Sewickley township will meet at the house occupied by John Miller, on land of Benj. Chew.

The electors of Pulaski township will meet at Dougherty's school house, No. 4, in said township.

The electors of Marion township will meet at the house of George Hartzell, jr., in said township.

The electors of New Brighton borough and district will meet at the school house in said borough.

The electors of Rochester township will meet at the Bolesville School House, in said township.

The electors of the borough of Rochester will meet at the school house in Rochester.

The electors of Freedom borough and district will meet at the school house in Freedom.

The electors of New Sewickley township will meet at the house of John Feazel, in said township.

The electors of Industry district will meet at the school house in Industry.

The electors of Harmony township will meet at the Hotel in the Economy.

The electors of Economy township will meet at the house of George C. Minis, in said township.

The Return Judges of the respective Districts in this County, are required to meet at the Court House in the borough of Beaver, on Friday the 5th day of August, 1864, then and there to perform the duties enjoined upon them by law.

Where a Judge, by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend such meeting of Judges, then the certificate or return shall be taken charge of by one of the Inspectors or Clerks of the election district, who shall do and perform the duties required of said Judge unable to attend.

I also give notice that by the Act of Assembly, approved, as aforesaid, on the 23rd day of April, A. D. 1864, it is, among other things, as follows:

SECTION 1. That for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the people of this Commonwealth, in regard to the adoption or rejection of said amendments, or either of them, the Governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to each and every Sheriff of this Commonwealth, commanding them to give notice, in the usual manner, in not less than two newspapers in each city and county, provided that so many are published therein, and by at least two printed hand bills in each election district of every city and county wherein no newspaper is published, that an election will be held in each of the townships, boroughs, wards, precincts and districts therein, on the first Tuesday of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, for the purpose of deciding upon the approval and ratification or rejection of the said amendments, which said election shall be opened, held and closed upon the day last aforesaid, at the places and within the hours at and within which the general elections of this Commonwealth are directed to be opened and closed, and it shall be the duty of the judges, inspectors and clerks of each of said townships, boroughs, wards, precincts and districts, to receive, at the said election, tickets, not exceeding the number of proposed amendments, either written or printed or partly written and partly printed, from each of the qualified voters of this State who may offer the same, and to deposit them in a box or boxes for that purpose, provided by the proper officers, which tickets shall be respectively labelled on the outside, "First Amendment," "Second Amendment," "Third Amendment," and those who are favorable to said amendments, or any of them, may express their approval thereof by voting each as many separate written or printed, or partly written and partly printed ballots or tickets as there are amendments approved by them, containing, on the inside thereof, the words, "For the amendment;" and those who are opposed to such amendments, or any of them, may express their opposition by voting each as many separate written and partly printed ballots or tickets as there are amendments not approved by them, containing, on the inside thereof, the words, "Against the amendment." The electors voting for or against the first amendment shall be considered as voting for or against the proposed fourth section to article three of the Constitution, extending the right of suffrage to soldiers. Electors voting for or against the second amendment shall be considered as voting for or against the proposed eighth section to article eleven of the Constitution; and electors voting for or against the third amendment shall be considered as voting for or against the proposed ninth section to article eleven of the Consitution.

SECTION 2. That the election on the proposed amendments shall, in all respects, be conducted as the elections of this Commonwealth are now conducted, and it shall be the duty of the return judges of the respective counties and district thereof, first having carefully ascertained the number of votes given or against each of the said amendments, in the manner aforesaid, to make out duplicate returns thereof, expressed in words at length, add not in figures, only one of which returns so made shall be lodged in the Prothonotary's office of the Court of Common Pleas of the proper county, and the other sealed and directed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and by one of said judges deposited forthwith in the most convenient post office, upon which postage shall be prepaid at the expense of the proper county.

SECTION 4. That the several duties required to be performed by the Sheriffs, Commissioners, Constables, Judges, Inspectors and all other officers whatever in and about the general elections of this Commonwealth shall be performed by such officers in and about the election herein provided for, and all persons, whether officers or others, shall be liable to the same punishment for the neglect of any duty or the commission of any offence at, in or about the said election, as they would for the neglect of like duty or the commission of like offence at, in or about the general elections of this Commonwealth.

Notice is Hereby Given,

That every person except Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent, who is or shall have been employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary department of this State or the United States, or of any city or incorporated district: and also that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Inspector, Judge, or Clerk of any election of the Commonwealth, and that no Judge, Inspector, or any other officer of such election, shall be eligible to any to be then voted for.

Also, in and by the fourth section of an Act approved the 10th of April, 1849, it is enacted that the 13th section of the act passed July 2d, 1839, entitled an act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth, shall not be construed so as to prevent any military officer or borough officer from service as Judge, Inspector or Clerk at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2d, 1839, provides as follows:

That the Judge and Inspectors chosen as aforesaid, shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the districts to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock on the morning of the Second Tuesday of October in each and every year, and each of said Inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of said district.

In case the persons who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend on the day of an election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as Inspector in his place; and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the present elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the Board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of Assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election during the time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judges when called on, in relation to the rights of any persons assessed by them to vote at such elections, or such other matters in relation to the Assessments of voters as the said inspectors or Judge, or either of them, shall from me to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County Tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months: Provided, that the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and having resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they have not paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless, first, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years, of a State or county tax, assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and gives satisfactory evidence either by his own oath or affirmation or that another, that he has paid such tax, or on failing to procure a receipt, shall make oath of the payment thereof; or second, if he claims a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of the residence in the district as is required in the case; and that he does verily believe, from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person admitted to vote shall be inserted into the alphabetical list by the Inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid a tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted on account of his age, and in either case, the reasons of such vote paid be called out by the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessor, or his right to vote, whether found there or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of Inspector to examine such persons on oath as to qualification, and, if he claims to have resided within the State one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district for the purpose of voting therein.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly, or overpower any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of his choice; such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than twelve months; and if it shall be shown that by the Court who the trial of such offence shall be had that the person offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the said offences was committed and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such a bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

If any person not by law qualified shall fraudulently vote at any election within this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified, shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such persons to vote, the person or persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three months.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspectors two tickets together, with the intention to vote illegally, or shall vote the same, or if any person shall advise or procure another to do so, he or they so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens,) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of jostling tickets, or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall, on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

Given under my hand at Beaver, SEAL. the 29th day of June, 1864.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.

WASHER, WRINGER and STARCHER Combined! Silver and Bronze Medals, Diplomas, Certificates, Premiums, and Testimonials, have been received from various sources, both Public and Private.

Self-Adjusting and Adjustable! The only Wringer with the Patent Cog-Wheel Regulator, for turning both rolls together and which positively prevents the rolls from breaking or twisting on the shaft. It is not only a perfect Wringer, but the Cog-wheels give it a power which renders it a great Excellent Washer pressing and separating, as it does, the dirt with the water from the clothes, leaving them dryer, whiter, and smoother than when "wrung" by hand. The water can be pressed from large and small articles, easier, quicker, and more thoroughly than by the ordinary, old-fashioned back-breaking, wrist-straining, and clothes destroying process.—The Cog-wheels prevent all "wear and tear" of clothes by the friction of the rolls or breaking of stitches by twisting.

Without Cog-wheels, the whole strain of forcing the cloth through the Machine is put upon the lower roll, and the cloth is made to act in the place of Cog-wheels, to drive the upper roll, causing a much greater strain upon the lower roll than when Cog-wheels, with our Patent Regulator, are used, besides the extra strain upon the cloth. A Good Canvasser wanted in every town. Liberal inducements offered, and exclusive sale guaranteed.

MARRIAGE.

ITS hopes and fears, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys. MANHOOD, how lost, how restored: the nature treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by W. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every male or woman who desires to fulfil the promise of their youth to their circumstances. Every pain, disease or ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained, every particle of knowle to that should be known is fully given. It is full of engravings. In fact, discloses secrets that every one should know, that are generally locked up, and not to be found in the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in silver or postage stamps.

Address Dr. W. YOUNG, No. 19 Spruce st., above Fourth, Philadelphia.

In Diseases and Unfortunes, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this, or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

Dr. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his office, 19 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia, other hours from 9 to 3 only. mar26

A LECTURE ON THE NATURE, TREATMENT AND CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., etc.

By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the Book of Man, &c.

The Vital Fluid, or Life of Man, is the Basis of Muscular Power, Mental Energy, Intellectual Force, and Personal Beauty. Whoever, therefore, wastes this Fluid, destroys these Elements of Life, Power, Force and Beauty, Self-Respect, Self-Confidence, Moral Character, Happiness, Love, Marriage, Social Position, and Domestic Felicity. Diffidence, Dizziness, Headache, Affections of the Eyes, Pimples in the Face, Incapacity for Business, and Sexual Incapacity, Decrease of Procreative Power, Barrenness, Loss of Sexual Desire, Impotency, Loss of Manhood, Premature Old Age, Decay of Muscular Energy, Self-Distrust, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Epilepsy, Fits, Insanity, and Death, are the fearful consequences of Self-Abuse.

☞ The indisputable Lecture, wherein it proves that the above enumerated, otherwise incurable evils may be removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain, effectual, and unfailing, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other
Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

CRITTENDEN'S
PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL
COLLEGE,
N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the student's for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES
OF THE
RAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome; thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake; for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately; if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Address,
WM. B. HURD, CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY, Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW.

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that the firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says, "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Poder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they wont them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing 37 cts. for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail; but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men, or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,

WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

That remittances may be made with confidence, W. B. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Farmers' and Citizens Bank, Brooklyn; to Jay, Coe, & Co., New York; to B. T. Barnum, Esq., New York, etc. etc.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing Certain Amendments to the Constitution.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

"SECTION 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulation as are, or shall be prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election."

SECTION 2. There shall be additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as section eight, and nine, as follows.

"SECTION 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

"SECTION 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers or privileges in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth."

HENRY C. JOHNSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

Office Secretary of Commonwealth
HARRISBURG, April 20, 1863.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss:

I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

IN TESTIMONY whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written.

ELI SHAFER,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The above Resolution having been agreed to by a majority of the members of each House, at two successive sessions of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, the proposed amendments will be submitted to the people, for their adoption or rejection, on its FIRST TUESDAY OF AUGUST, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article of the Constitution, and thereof, entitled "An act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people for their approval and ratification or rejection, the proposed amendments to the Constitution, approved the twenty-third day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one."

ELI SHAFER,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
